

High Performance Analyst - Intern

Spring Semester – USA Rugby (Chula Vista, CA) or (Denver, CO)

Reports to: Head of Analysis - USA Rugby Men's 7s; Head of Performance- USA Rugby Men's 15s in Denver.

APPLICATION LINK

Term: January 1-June 31(6 months)

- This is a full-time, unpaid internship at 40 hours per week.

Overview:

- The successful candidate will be working with our Olympic Rugby 7s programs in Chula Vista, California or our International 15s programs in Denver.

Responsibilities:

- Using SportsCode to complete the coding of training, match, scout, and opposition footage
- Produce reports on individual player performance against internal and external metrics
- Assist coaching staff and head performance analyst with opposition scouting, review and preview and other tasks as needed
- General high performance analysis tasks using our centralized software platforms

Benefits to the Intern:

- Work alongside Olympic and/or International athletes and staff
- Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner provided to the successful candidate on-site at the Olympic Training Center
- Use of SportsCode for the duration of the internship
- MacBook provided for the duration of the internship

Percentage of duties (estimated):

- 70% Onsite and offsite filming and coding of team, individuals and opposition
- 30% High Performance managerial tasks as necessary for the function of National Teams

Note: When applying for the job online, you will be required to answer the following:

- Are you willing to work in / relocate to Chula Vista, CA or Denver, CO area at your own expense if hired?
- Do you have any prior rugby experience or any other qualifying experiences, skills, or dispositions you may have that prepared you for success in this role

2655 Crescent Drive, Suite A, Lafayette, CO 80026 | Phone: 303.539.0300 | Fax: 303.539.0311

